

sinclair plans to air an anti-Kerry piece just days before the election, without a counter-balancing view. I resent this timing and slant. Corporate merger bullies disgust me. I'm grateful for your mission fidelity amidst budget cuts. Please preserve the demographically representative character of our public airwaves. Compel Sinclair to withdraw 'Honor', or balance it with something like "Upriver." Thanks.